Here, 8:00 P. M.

Hello folks,

Here I am once more to let all of you know that I haven't forgotten you. Hope this finds everyone in good health. I'm okay myself except that I don't like this cold weather.

I got your Christmas package yesterday and it sure was a nice surprise. All I can say is thanks for everything. At least I can never say that you forget me. The tobacco came just in time because I've been borrowing pipe tobacco for the last two weeks. We can get plenty of cigarettes here but no pipe tobacco at all. So thanks once more.

Well, it's the same old story here^s still cold and the usual stuff going on. Sometimes were busy and then again sometime were got it pretty easy.

Mostly doing something or other.

Glad to ~~hear~~ hear Tony got the deer and its too bad the boys didn't get any. Better luck next time.

Say, if you see any of the aunts or uncles, or grand ma give them my regards. I'd write to them but its hard enough to write home.

I'll close for now but be good and I wish all of you a happy holiday season.

Love, Tony

P.S. - Sure wish I could be home for Christmas.
