Home - 6:00 P.M.

Dear -Mimi + Tony, (+ girls)

Just a few lines to let you know that as usual its the same old story. Nothing new, or I should say worth writing about. Hope this finds all of you in the best of health as I'm okay myself.

Glad to hear that Tony and the boys did so good on the pheasants. Even got a couple for me didn't they? Sure miss going hunting this year with them but maybe before too long well all be together again and can hunt as much as we want.

How is the weather coming back home? Over here its pretty cold and it still looks like snow even tho it hasnt started in yet. I just filled my pen as you probably notice and also please excuse the mess writing tonight. Just can't get in the groove sometimes. Sometimes my hand just won't stay steady enough to even write good.

I got a letter from home today and Mom said I sound as if I'm in the dumps. Well, just tell her not to worry because at times a guy gets that way over here.

Also got another package from home and I sure appreciated that. They always ask what I want for Christmas but its hard to figure out what I'd like.

I'll close for now as I've got to write a letter home too so be good and until next time heree love from,

Tony
