

Dear ...
Jan. 5, 1951
9:00 P.M.

Hello to everyone in Stryker Mills, Some way to start a letter isn't it? Well, anyway I hope this finds all of you in the best of health as I'm feeling okay myself. We begining to get a bit cooler lately but that's to be expected.

The way you talk I guess your little girls are really growing up aren't they. When I get home I won't even recognize them.

I got your latest letter this morning and was glad to hear from you. So I figured it was about time I dropped you a line.

You ask if I see any action, well I'll tell you then but don't mention any thing at home. We all get our share of it over here. Right now we've been working with the 5th Regiment and they're up on line. We don't see action every day but still we see enough. The down Chinks slip thru their lines at night and they'll wait along these so-called roads and try to ambush us and there's always the danger of enemy mortar and on telling fire. So I don't want to worry you folks but you asked me and I guess its okay to tell you about it.

I don't like to write about real stuff but anyway its just to give you a general idea.

In about a week it looks as if Tony will be after the phosents.
Wish I was there to help but I'll have to wait a while for that.

So be sure to get me one, Tony.

That's about all for now so until next time lots of love to all.

Tony
