Dear Mini + Tony,

Here I am with a few lines to let you know I haven't forgotten you. It's just five and hope all of you are the same.

We've still got this damned cold weather and it's really miserable. After a while a guy gets just about fed up with the cold. It seems as if no matter how much you dress up you're still cold. One thing tho, since it's cold everything has been kind of quiet. Guess the chinks don't like it either. ~~From~~ In the last four patrols we've been on we haven't seen a thing so I can't kick too much. We still keep fairly busy hauling supplies up.

Glad to hear that everything is going good at the garage. That's the way to do things.

I guess Barb has got herself a new job now but you must know about that.

What have you heard about Ernie?
Is the army going to get him or not.
I kind of think he should have stayed on with Herbert.

By the time I get home I won't even know anybody, it seems. Almost forgot what its like around there. I'm not sure just when I'll get there but probably before too long.

Well, I know this is kind of a short letter but you know me by
now. So best regards to all and be good.

Tony
